- You need to plan for at least a few hours of work per week outside of lecture and lab

CS 1340:Fall 2020:Lecture 01 8 of 20

ATTENDANCE

- You'll need to attend class to be successful.
- I'll talk about things that aren't necessarily in ZyBooks.
- If you're attending virtually:
 - Turn your camera on and microphone off
 - Please be mostly vertical (aka. not in bed)
 - Please be dressed as you would if attending class in person.

CS 1340:Fall 2020:Lecture 01 9 of 20

ACADEMIC ETHICS

- You must be prepared to defend any code or assignment that you submit.
- DO NOT ever share your code with anyone. DO NOT, DO NOT, DO NOT!!!
- You are encouraged to talk about the assignments at an abstract level. However, you cannot share your solutions with another student.

GENERAL COMMENTS

- Wear a face mask at all times
- Try and keep your phone from dominating your attention.
- Don't surf r/memes or other sites that may be distracting to those sitting around you
- Ostentatious yawning is a huge pet peeve...

GETTING SET UP FOR PYTHON

Anaconda

- Anaconda Python is a particular distribution of the language plus bunches of other tools
- Makes it a snap to install on multiple platforms
- Go to https://www.anaconda.com/products/individual, scroll to the bottom, and choose the installer for your platform.
 - More platform-specific instructions: https://docs.anaconda.com/anaconda/install/
- Open Anaconda Navigator to verify it was installed.
